Est. 1994

Welcome to Carpus Protection & Investigations, established in 1994 offering tailored solutions exclusively to Businesses, Corporations, Law Firms, and Government Entities. Today's infrastructure delivers rapid information. However, how can you be certain of its accuracy? Combining over a century of Military, Law Enforcement, and Private Sector experience, you can trust our relentless Associates to handle your Protection, Investigations, Logistics, Consulting, and other High-Risk Operations. Services are not provided to the general public, allowing us to focus all of our resources exclusively to Business clients for expedited results.

Creating custom tailored Business solutions for each elite client proves our highly skilled team of trained Specialists are passionate about serving you. We are well equipped to ascertain information, identify challenges, monitor situations, promptly adapt, and engage a variety of pernicious encounters that may arise. Request Services now, and leave the details to us!
